1. The following is a quotation of the appropriate paragraphs of 35 U.S.C. 102 that form the basis for the rejections under this section made in this Office action:

A person shall be entitled to a patent unless –

(a) the invention was known or used by others in this country, or patented or described in a printed publication in this or a foreign country, before the invention thereof by the applicant for a patent.

(b) the invention was patented or described in a printed publication in this or a foreign country or in public use or on sale in this country, more than one year prior to the date of application for patent in the United States.

(e) the invention was described in a patent granted on an application for patent by another filed in the United States before the invention thereof by the applicant for patent, or on an international application by another who has fulfilled the requirements of paragraphs (1), (2), and (4) of section 371(c) of this title before the invention thereof by the applicant for patent.

The changes made to 35 U.S.C. 102(e) by the American Inventors Protection Act of 1999 (AIPA) and the Intellectual Property and High Technology Technical Amendments Act of 2002 do not apply when the reference is a U.S. patent resulting directly or indirectly from an international application filed before November 29, 2000. Therefore, the prior art date of the reference is determined under 35 U.S.C. 102(e) prior to the amendment by the AIPA (pre-AIPA 35 U.S.C. 102(e)).

2. Claims 1, 2, 3, 5, 8, 9, 10 and 11 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 102(a), (b) & (e) as being clearly anticipated by Crider et al. (6,263,284 B1).

Both Crider et al. and Bevc et al. teach selection of source and receiver locations and regridding to a specified other location which may be a known or unknown location to be interpolated generated trace data, where the generated data may be singular or plural traces, and include teaching the use of a fitting step upon seismic data involving a polynomial equations or a least squares fitting operation.

3. Claims 1, 2, 3, 5, 8, 9, 10 and 11 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 102(a) & (e) as being clearly anticipated by Bevc et al. (6,25,543 B1).

4. Claims 4, 6, and 7 are objected to as dependent upon rejected base claims but would be allowed over the art of record as not being taught therein nor the motivation for combination with above applied prior art.

5. Any inquiry concerning this communication or earlier communications from the examiner should be directed to Donald McElheny, Jr. whose telephone number is 571-272-2218. The examiner can normally be reached on Monday-Thursday from 7:30 to 4:00.
